I carry your heart with me—I carry it in my heart. I am never without it; wherever I go, you go, and whatever is done by only me is your doing, my darling. I fear no fate, for you are my fate, my sweet, and I want no world, for beautiful you are my world, my true. It's you who are whatever a moon has always meant, and whatever a sun will always sing is you. Here is the deepest secret nobody knows: here is the root of the root and the bud of the bud, the sky of the sky of a tree called life, which grows higher than soul can hope or mind can hide. This is the wonder that keeps the stars apart—I carry your heart, I carry it in my heart.
